ICPC North America Championship Event - Health & Safety Information

Although the “COVID Years” are somewhat behind us, ICPC is aware that there is still a possibility for COVID and other communicable diseases to spread, especially in large groups. We ask that each of you assess your own risk level, and take appropriate precautions. On site, we will follow the recommendation of public health officials.

We ask that each individual consider obtaining private travel insurance that would cover any medical expenses such as medical treatment, meals, hotel, travel interruption/rescheduling and all other associated costs that you might incur . ICPC will not cover any of these costs.

Each person who is traveling to Orlando for the ICPC North America Championship should check with their airlines or any other public conveyance for any travel requirements or restrictions.

By participating in this event, you are agreeing to the following:

- Your participation in this event is voluntary, and you assume all risks associated with your participation, including potential health risks.
- You agree to be respectful of everyone's health choices of whether or not to use masks, social distancing, etc.

As with all ICPC policies, failure to comply could cause you to face a disciplinary action, up to and possibly including being asked to leave the event.
