Team Reference Document

2024 ICPC North America Championship - Updated 5/10/2024

Your printed Team Reference Document (TRD) is the only technical resource you may bring with you to the contest. There are several conditions that must be met, and several rules regarding its use. The NAC rules concerning the content and format of the TRD are similar to those of the World Finals (<https://icpc.global/worldfinals/on-site-registration>) and are summarized below for your convenience.

1. This document may contain up to 25 pages of reference materials, single-sided, letter or A4 size, with pages numbered in the upper right-hand corner and your university name and team name printed in the upper left-hand corner.
2. Text and illustrations must be readable by a person with correctable eyesight without magnification from a distance of 1/2 meter.
3. You must PRINT YOUR OWN COPIES of the document. We will not print them for you. Note that you will not be able to access your TRD electronically during the Dress Rehearsal or the Contest.
4. You must BRING YOUR OWN PRINTED COPIES (1 per contestant) of the TRD.
5. The document must be in some type of notebook or folder with the name of your institution on the front.
6. You will keep your TRDs for use at the Programming Camp.
7. You are permitted to make notes on your TRD during the Programming Camp and Dress Rehearsal. Both the front and back may be used for this purpose. Additional pages may not be added at any time.
8. At the end of the Programming Camp, you will turn in your TRDs for a compliance review that will be conducted by contest officials, and they will be under the control of the contest officials until the Contest is over.
9. The TRDs will be set out on your workstation before the Dress Rehearsal. You must leave them at your workstation after the Dress Rehearsal in order to use them at the Contest. If you take your TRD with you after the Dress Rehearsal, you will NOT be able to bring it with you to the Contest.
10. You may take the TRD with you after the Contest is over.

Note: You may want to have another way of accessing your Team Reference Document at the NAC in case your printed copy is damaged or lost. For example, give your coach a copy on a flash drive to hold for you.
